

Microsoft Business Intelligence Developer (SSRS, PowerPivot)

Raining Virtue Solutions, Inc. is a consulting, integration and managed services firm comprised of highly motivated and experienced business and information technology professionals committed to assisting clients in enhancing business operations by taking full advantage of today's advanced technology. Technology should be driven by the requirements of a client's business to improve customer service, operational effectiveness and profitability. The firm takes great pride in identifying and selecting only the area's most professional software consultants who believe in the power of a team approach and who are focused on exceeding client expectations.

Summary:

Responsible for designing, building and deploying SQL Server Reporting Services/PowerPivot solutions to support both operational and Business Intelligence information needs. Successful candidate must demonstrate expert-level ability to design practical solutions as well as implement them utilizing standard Reporting Services techniques.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrate expert level ability in enterprise reporting solutions using Reporting Services.
- Demonstrate expert level ability in designing an enterprise quality reporting solution.
- Demonstrate expert level ability to translate business requirements into useful and elegant information presentation.
- Have some experience with PowerPivot and Report Builder 3.0.
- Demonstrate exceptional communication skills and team interpersonal skills.
- Demonstrate understanding of key principles of first rate business consulting.
- Demonstrate ability to be self-managed and motivated.

Requirements:

- SQL Server 2008 R2, Microsoft SQL Server Reporting Services, Microsoft SharePoint Server 2010, PowerPivot, Report Builder 3.0.

Contract Details:

- 30-40 hrs per week.
- Home Office/On-site (multiple clients in Puget Sound area)